WM. STOOPS LOSES LIFE IN HOTEL BLAZE

William Stoops, 45, son of H. Russell Stoops, Gettysburg R. 2, died about 5 a.m. today in a fire that destroyed a three-story hotel opposite Ft. Meade, Md. One other person also burned to death while 19 escaped injury.

Maryland state police said the blaze broke out at 4:41 a.m. in the Hotel Barattini, a frame building, and an unidentified occupant went around beating on doors and waking guests, which enabled most of them to escape.

Stoops was found suffocated in a third floor room of the hotel by members of the 12 volunteer fire companies which responded to the alarm.

The other dead man, identified as George Gazda, manager of the hotel, was found two hours after the fire was brought under control. Police said, by the time firemen arrived, flames had engulfed the building and only one wall was left standing.

GHS GRADUATE

Among those escaping from the building were seven men, six women, three young girls and a small boy.

A 1934 graduate of Gettysburg High School, Stoops was employed by the Gettysburg Hardware Store before entering the U. S. Navy. He served in the Second World War, a year in Korea, and three years in Germany.

Surviving in addition to his father are: his wife, Mrs. Sherie Bell Stoops, Memphis, Tenn.; son, Daniel W. Stoops, Phoenix, Ariz.; daughter, Mrs. Harold Mumma, Waynesboro, and two grandchildren. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Unmanned Capsule Is Launched, Recovered

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The United States successfully rocketed an unmanned model of its man in space capsule 130 miles high today and recovered it intact from the Atlantic 235 miles down-range.

The shot was an important prelude to launching an American astronaut on a similar flight planned within a few months.

The astronauts training to be first Americans in space all were on hand to see today's shot.

FOLLOWS 3 FAILURES
The successful launching capped three disappointing ones that set the program back.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced 50 minutes after launch that a helicopter from the aircraft carrier Valley Forge took the one-ton capsule from the ocean at 11:46 a.m. 31 minutes after it was launched atop an 83-foot Redstone missile.

The capsule was deposited on the carrier flight deck at 12:03 p.m.

16 MINUTES, 4,000 MILES
The bell-shaped capsule was sighted about 90 miles northeast of Grand Bahama Island shortly after it completed its 16-minute, 4,000 mile-an-hour flight. A fleet of ships, planes and helicopters sped immediately to the scene.

The capsule will be returned to Cape Canaveral for intensive study to determine how well it stood the trip.

A fleet of ships, planes and helicopters was standing by when the capsule was launched.

All Motor Routes Made Deliveries

The Gettysburg Times circulation department staff looked forward to more winter snows today, confident from its performance during the early part of last week that it should be able to "get the papers out."

Circulation Manager Donald Miller said that despite snow 12 inches in depth in some parts of the county and many deep drifts, all 11 motor routes, covering 425 miles of road in Adams, York and northern Maryland counties, were completed each day.

Sometimes The Times cars had to be towed from drifts and sometimes they had to detour around other motor vehicles which had stalled on drifted roads, but the cars broke through and even though a little late were able to complete distribution of the paper each day.

CHANGES IN PROCEDURE BY SHERIFF

For the first time in probably more than a century, the list of sheriff sales no longer hangs in the prothonotary's office.

Sheriff Dawson Miller removed the list this morning and thus opened additional space for bulletin boards in the prothonotary's office.

He explained that new court procedure no longer requires posting sheriff's sales in the prothonotary's clerk's and register and recorder's offices. In the future the only notices to be posted will be placed on the bulletin board in the front hallway at the courthouse, in the sheriff's office and on the property to be sold.

OTHER CHANGES

A number of other changes have also come about within the last month, the sheriff reported.

The prothonotary no longer will issue "fieri facias," the familiar "fi-fas," showing a debt claim. Now the office issues "writs of execution." Previously both ways were used to bring about sale of a debtor's property. Now only the writs remain.

The old rules also provide for advertising in two newspapers and the county's Legal Journal when sheriff's sales are to be held. Now only one newspaper is required, and it will be the one most favored by the attorney of the person pushing the sale," the sheriff said.

In another change, the sheriff has to post a schedule of distribution in connection with each sheriff's sale and place it on file at his office 10 days before distribution of the sum realized from the sale is made.

Two Burglaries Reported Here

Burglars over the weekend broke into the John Deere Implement Store, rear 233 Baltimore St., and the Day Care Center, E. High St.

Borough police, who investigated, said entrance to the farm implement center was made by throwing a rock through the door while entry to the day center was made by breaking a back door and lifting a latch.

The police said only about 35 pennies were stolen from the John Deere Store while about $7 was taken from the Day Care Center. Police are continuing the investigation.

FRACTURES WRIST

Lawrence Michall, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Michall, 216 Highland Ave., was treated Sunday at the Warner Hospital for a fracture of the right wrist suffered when he fell on ice.

Rebel Imperial Guards Are Hunted In Ethiopia

By HOMER SMITH

ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia (AP)—Emperor Haile Selassie's loyal army today hunted rebel imperial guards who fled to the mountains after an abortive attempt to de-throne the 68-year-old monarch.

Army patrols marched through the streets of Addis Ababa and air force patrol planes droned overhead but the city otherwise was quiet, concerned mainly with burying its dead and tending its wounds. Officials estimated civilian and army casualties at 2,000.

A communique claimed the revolt, which broke out Wednesday while the emperor was visiting Brazil, was "quickly crushed by the Ethiopian army and people."

SWIFT PUNISHMENT

Swift punishment was promised for others attempting to overthrow the Ethiopian "king of kings."

Haile Selassie flew to Addis Ababa airport Saturday, then drove in a tank to Jubilee Palace. His primary residence, Guntalelu

PASTORS PLAN PRAYER WEEK SERVICES HERE

Preparations for the annual Week of Prayer services in Gettysburg beginning Tuesday, January 3, and continuing through Sunday, January 8, were completed at the December meeting of the Gettysburg Ministerium Sunday evening at St. James Lutheran parish house's Maude Miller's Room. The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Paul L. Reaser were the hosts.

It was announced that $100 has been forwarded to "Share Our Surplus" from the offering at the union Thanksgiving Day service which was held in the Methodist Church here.

The Rev. Herbert W. Stroup, a new member of the faculty of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, will be the preacher for the Week of Prayer services on Tuesday and Wednesday, January 3 and 4.

The Rev. Dr. Harold A. Dunkelberger, head of the Bible Department at Gettysburg College, will preach at the Thursday and Friday services and the final sermon on Sunday evening, January 8, will be delivered by the Rev. Glenn C. Zug, Church of the Brethren pastor from Harrisburg.

All of the union services will be held in St. James Lutheran Church. Each will begin at 7:45 o'clock. The offerings will go to migrant work.

The ministerium president, the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill, Presbyterian pastor, presided at the meeting which was followed by the singing of Christmas carols and the exchange of gifts.

The next meeting of the Ministerium will be held Sunday, January 15, at the Baptist Church with the Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Coddington as hosts.

Prematurely Born Infant Dies Here

Tina Marie Decker, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Decker, 1 Liberty St., died at the Warner Hospital Saturday 9½ hours after premature birth.

Surviving in addition to the parents are the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Decker and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McKenrick; great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George McKenrick, all of Gettysburg, and these brothers and sisters, Robert L. Alice D., Barry E. and Michael F. Decker, all at home.

Graveside services arranged through the Peters Funeral Home were conducted at 10:30 o'clock this morning by the Rev. Fr. Anthony F. Kane.

PASSED STATE COP

Two drivers have been charged by state police before Justice of the Peace John O. Whitman, Cumberland Twp., with making bad passes and each driver has been sent a 10-day notice to appear or forward his fine and costs. The defendants are Stanley Carson, Dover, Pa., who passed a uniformed state policeman, and George Daniel Shorter, Washington, D. C.

BOARD MEETS TONIGHT

The postponed December meeting of the Gettysburg Joint School Board will be held this evening at 8 o'clock at the high school building. Election of a president and vice president and organization of committees are on the agenda. Last week's snow caused postponement of the meeting originally set for December 12.

CODE VIOLATOR

U. S. Helping Stricken Laos

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—Pro-Western Premier Boun Oum struggled today to put this battered capital on its feet with the help of an American airlift flying in critically needed food and medicine.

The government announced the roundup of more than 100 snipers and looters as it tackled the critical economic and political crisis that gripped the little Indo-Chinese kingdom.

An American airlift to rush rice, milk, medical and building supplies from neighboring Thailand was set up over the weekend after pro-Communist troops were driven out of the city in a four-day battle that left at least 150 men, women and children dead and more than 500 wounded.

A U. S. Embassy spokesman said the airlift would continue as long as needed.

Boun moved into the Foreign Ministry building Sunday and announced his government was in business in the rubble-strewn city.

Fear 200 Men Trapped By Carrier Fire In New York

NEW YORK (AP)—At least 200 workmen were reported trapped today as fire raged aboard the unfinished aircraft carrier Constellation, one of the largest in the world.

Police said the information came from a Brooklyn Navy Yard worker who was removed from the blazing ship.

At least 40 workmen were burned.

POUR WATER ON FIRE

A mobile crane lowered acetylene equipment onto a Navy launch heading toward the Constellation. Observers surmised that rescuers might try to cut their way into the ship to rescue those trapped.

Water cascaded from the main deck into the East River as fire boats and trucks on the pier played streams at the base of the ship's skyscraper-like superstructure.

A naval spokesman said the fire started when a can of flammable liquid was punctured and its contents spread against hot metal, causing an explosion.

25 STORIES HIGH

The Navy said all Navy personnel were accounted for. Only a few Navy men normally would be aboard while finishing touches were being put to the new ship.

The 60,000-ton Constellation is 1,047 feet long and 252 feet wide, and from keel to mast is as high as a 25-story building. Its keel was laid Oct. 10, 1957, and it was scheduled for commissioning next March.

The Moran Towing Co. sent five tugs to provide assistance.

Capt. Lars O. Thorsen of the tug Carol Moran said he took off from 150 to 200 men and put them aboard a railroad tug and an excursion fishing boat.

COUPLE WEDS ON SATURDAY AT BENDER'S

Miss Janet Arlene Hollabaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Hollabaugh, Biglerville R. 1, became the bride of Jay Marlin Cutshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy A. Cutshall, Biglerville, in the Bender's Lutheran Church, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Henry W. Sternat. The altar was decorated with white mums and snapdragons. Mrs. Shel-

Federal Probers Question Witnesses Of Air Tragedy

NEW YORK (AP)—Two teams of federal investigators planned intensive questioning today of at least 10 persons who claim they actually saw Friday's airliner collision—worst in aviation history.

Other investigators checked the possibility that the United Air Lines DC8 jet involved had overshot the point at which it was to begin flying a rectangular "holding pattern" prior to its intended landing at Idlewild Airport.

As the Civil Aeronautics Board pressed its inquiry, the exact total of dead still could not be determined.

128 LOSE LIVES

All 128 persons on the jet and on the plane that collided with it, a Trans World Airlines Super Constellation, were killed. Five other persons were known to have perished on the ground in Brooklyn, where the jet plane crashed, and at least two more were missing and probably dead.

The total of 135 had fluctuated because police were unable to learn the whereabouts of all those believed to be tenants of the Child Is Injured In County Mishap

Damages totaled $1,200 and a child received a bruised forehead in a truck-car collision Friday on the East Berlin road near Holtzschwamm, according to state police.

The investigating officer said that a car driven by John C. Brown, 37, Biglerville, collided with a truck operated by Donald M. Eyster, 27, Spring Grove R. 1, at an intersection. Damage to the car was placed at $1,000.

Slightly injured in the accident was T. Radford Brown, four, Biglerville, who was treated by Dr. R. M. Hale, Arendtsville, according to the police.

LITTLESTOWN GIRL MARRIES ON SATURDAY

Miss Susan E. Baumgardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Baumgardner, 402 S. Queen St., Littlestown, and Daniel H. Hudson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Jacoby Services To Be At Church

A change in the arrangements for the funeral services of Mrs. Ruth N. Jacoby, 67, wife of Orville Jacoby, Gettysburg R. 4, was announced today. The services had originally been announced for the Peters Funeral Home, Carlisle St., Tuesday afternoon. Instead they will be held at the Church of the Brethren along the Biglerville Rd. at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

A viewing will be held at the funeral home this evening after 7.

TRAIN DELAYS FIRE TRUCKS AS BUILDING BURNS SUNDAY

Damage was estimated at $1,500 Sunday evening at 7:05 o'clock when fire destroyed tools and antique furniture, including several tables intended to be Christmas presents, in the shop of Charles Ecker, 48 E. Stevens St.

Firemen were delayed in reaching the fire by a Western Maryland train at Carlisle and Stratton St. crossings. Fire Chief Francis I. Linn said firemen clocked the delay at eight minutes.

A number of residents of the northern end of the town, alarmed by the delay in arrival of the fire trucks, said they planned to see borough council "to do something about the danger involved in delay of the fire trucks by trains." Their discussion indicated they would propose either that council make some arrangement with the railroad which would provide for cutting a train to permit fire trucks to pass through or construct a fire house in the north end of town, place some equipment there and assign firemen from the northern end of the community to that engine house.

DISCOVERED BY NEIGHBOR

Mrs. Paul Ecker, daughter-in-law of Mr. Ecker, with whom he resides, was enroute to church at the time of the fire call. Her car was the first in line on the north side of the tracks while the fire trucks were similarly blocked on the south side of the tracks, Fire Chief Linn said.

Mrs. Ecker had looked into her father-in-law's shop about 5 o'clock Sunday evening and nothing was amiss at that time. About 7 o'clock Mrs. Donald Peters, walking along

C. E. CULLISON, WORLD WAR I VETERAN, DIES

Calvin E. Cullison, 71, died Sunday afternoon at his home, Biglerville R. 2. Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, said the death was suicide.

According to Dr. Crist, Cullison shot himself in the chest with a shotgun leaving behind a note in which he expressed regret for the shooting and listing instructions for burial.

He had been in ill health and had returned to his home about a month ago after being a patient at the Warner Hospital.

A son of the late William and Julia (Frigo) Cullison, he had been employed for many years in Philadelphia by the Brown Instrument Company. About two years ago, following his retirement, he moved to Biglerville R. 2, to care for his father. His father died about a year ago.

An overseas veteran of World War I, Cullison was a member of the Albert J. Lentz American Legion Post here. His wife, the former Frances I. W. Ickes, died a number of years ago.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Beulah Fetters, Gard

The bride is employed by Geigley's Homemade Pies and the groom is an employee of Lower's Country Store. The couple resides at the home of the bride.

ALLIES PLAN EARLY MEETS

PARIS (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan is reported planning an early series of personal meetings with the leaders of Britain's three biggest Atlantic Alliance partners.

Informants said that barring unforeseen developments: West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer will go to London late in January for the visit which illness prevented this month.

Macmillan may come to Paris—possibly in February—for a meeting with President Charles de Gaulle.

COMING TO U.S.

In March or April Macmillan will fly to Washington at the invitation of John F. Kennedy, who by then will be the U. S. president.

The affairs of the Atlantic Alliance, the future pattern of relations with the Communist East, the simmering Berlin crisis, nuclear policies and a host of matters affecting Britain's relations with each individual partner will dominate these meetings.

Macmillan, according to information in Paris, is likely to be the first of the European government chiefs to meet Kennedy officially.

LONDON (AP) — More than 5,000 British teen-agers have asked for pen pals in the United States in response to an appeal last month by the English-Speaking Union.

One official guessed the loot from the night depository, swollen with receipts from pre-Christmas business at Boardman Plaza shopping center, might be as high as $1,000,000.

Arrest 3 Who Dug Up Discarded Beer

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Police have padlocked the gate to the city dump after people began digging to reach several truckloads of beer that had been dumped in a trench.

Three men were arrested Sunday when officers found the trunk of their car bulging with cans of the discarded beer.

But police puzzled over what charges might be filed against persons who helped themselves to something the original owner had thrown away.

The beer was good. There was speculation it was discarded because a malfunction in the brewery bottling process had caused some of the cans to be partially filled.

"LOVE OF A CHILD"

Oh, for the love of a little child... the touch of the angel's hand... possessing power that can make... a fool understand... oh, for the pure and tender kiss... from lips which say no wrong... this fills a heart with gladness... and makes it sing a song... oh, for the soft embrace of one... who clings to mother's breast... a babe in arms, so wonderful... who by the Lord is blessed... oh, for the smile that says "I care"... the innocence, the bliss... that shines like the golden sunrise... my heart longs for all this... like holds a wreath of treasures... some of which I've compiled... but none of them to justice to... the love of a little child.

LIST SERVICES IN ST. ALOYSIUS

The pastor, the Rev. Dr. John E. Metz, announced the Christmas services at the morning masses on Sunday in St. Aloysius Catholic Church. There was Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament following the 10 o'clock high mass, and members of the congregation made visits of adoration throughout the day, which was set aside as a day of prayer for all those suffering religious persecution. A Holy Hour concluded the day of prayer at 7 o'clock last evening.

Daily mass this week will begin at 7:15 a.m. There will be no religious instructions for high school students until after the new year, and no Saturday night socials until after the new year.

The annual Christmas meeting and covered dish supper of the St. Aloysius Parish Council of Catholic Women, to include an exchange of gifts, will take place at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday. Merchandise club winner this week was Mrs. George Wheeler.

The Christmas services will begin with a Triduum in honor of the infant Jesus on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 7:30 p.m. Confessions will be heard Friday and Saturday beginning at 3:30 p.m. and following Triduum services. A program of Christmas music will begin about 11:30 p.m. Christmas Eve to be followed by Midnight Mass. There will be low masses on Christmas morning at 7 and 8 and at 11 and 12 o'clock. The Christmas party for the children of the parochial school, sponsored each year by the Parish Council will be held on Thursday at 1:30 p.m. instead of Friday as previously announced.

MONTREAL IS WINNER AGAIN

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Apparently there's no stopping Boom Boom Geoffrion and the Montreal Canadiens in the National Hockey League.

The 29-year-old winger smashed home three goals over the weekend in pacing the league-leading Canucks to two victories and a six point spread over the runner-up Toronto Maple Leafs.

Boom Boom scored both goals in Montreal's 2-0 victory over the New York Rangers Saturday and one—the winning marker—in a 4-2 win over Boston on Bruin ice Sunday.

TIED BOSTON

The Maple Leafs tied Boston 3-3 Saturday and beat the Rangers at New York Sunday, 3-2, but lost ground anyway.

Frank Mahovlich extended his scoring streak to five games in leading Toronto to victory over the Rangers. He scored his 29th goal in 31 games in the second period. That made the score 3-0 and proved to be the winner as the Rangers rallied to make it close.

Detroit's Gordie Howe was the big gun, as usual, in Detroit's 3-2 edge over Chicago Sunday. The old master scored twice. His second goal, at 17:59 of the final period, proved to be the winner.

Coach Has "Finest Christmas Present"

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)—Marvin Bass calls his new job as head football coach at the University of South Carolina "the finest Christmas present I've ever been presented."

South Carolina's athletic director, Warren Giese, announced Saturday that he was retiring as coach at the age of 36 and that he would be succeeded by Bass, a 41-year-old former aide and last season as assistant coach at Georgia Tech.

In five seasons as head coach, Giese's teams won 28, lost 21 and tied one. The 1960 record, 3-6-1, was his poorest.

NEW YORK (AP)—Philip L. Becker, 71, board chairman of the American Chicle Co., died Friday. He had been with the firm since 1916, was named president in 1960 and board chairman in 1958.

Sign Audio-Visual Agreement

Two Adams Countians participated in the signing of an agreement last Thursday evening at Shippensburg which instituted the six-county Shippensburg Area Audio-Visual Library. Seated, left to right, are: E. C. Barnes, president of the Franklin County Board of School Directors, who was elected president of the new audio-visual library board; Mrs. Ruth Smeltzer, secretary of the Mifflin County Board; William M. Lott, president of the Adams County board, and Ezra C. Doty, president of the Juniata County board. Standing are Wilbur Kline, vice president of the Franklin County board; Ira C. Hanawalt, president of the Mifflin County board; Dean Asquith, Biglerville, Adams County board vice president and treasurer of the new library board, and Andrew Zandt, secretary of the Juniata County board. Adams County Superintendent of Schools C. P. Keefer also attended the Shippensburg meeting.

Near 60th Anniversary

A dinner was held Sunday at the Arendtsville National Bank in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Kuykendall, Gettysburg R. 3, who will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary on December 25. They received many gifts.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Kuykendall, Mrs. Lola Wisler, Kenneth Kuykendall, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. John Mickle, Gettysburg R. 3; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kuykendall and son, Gettysburg R. 5; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hefflin, Gettysburg R. 4; Mr. and Mrs. John Huffaker and son, Gettysburg R. 2; George Hayberger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hess, Mrs. Florence Davis, Mrs. Jacob Myers and grandson, and Rev. and Mrs. Harold Myers and daughter.

Wins Poster Contest

Jane Kuhn, a student at Immaculate Conception Parochial School, New Oxford, is shown as she was awarded first place in the "Keep Christ in Christmas" poster contest held by the Catholic War Veterans of Bonneville. Fifty-two elementary students through the county took part in the contest. Norman Weaver, third vice commander of the CWV, is shown presenting a $25 U.S. Savings Bond and certificate to Miss Kuhn. Beside the winner is her mother, Mrs. Edward Kuhn, New Oxford R. 1. Presentation of the poster contest awards was made following the annual Christmas party for children of the members of CWV held at the post home in Bonneville Sunday afternoon.

EHMAN LEADS AMERKS TO WIN

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rochester's Gerry Ehman is making a strong pitch for an American Hockey League record and a chance to get back in the National League.

The former Toronto forward scored three goals in two games over the weekend and now has scored in eight straight contests—three shy of the AHL record. The 28-year-old, six foot rightwinger has whacked in 13 goals in 15 games since being shipped down to the AHL by the Maple Leafs.

Ehman beat the goalie for a 4-0 rout of Cleveland Barons at Rochester Sunday. Meanwhile Rochester's Ed Chadwick, the AHL's all-star goalie last season, notched his first shutout of the current season.

On Saturday, Ehman scored once as the Amerks bowed to Hershey, 4-3.

In other Sunday games, the Providence Reds whipped Hershey 4-1, on Don Simmons' nifty goal-tending and Paul Larivee's two goals, and Buffalo triumphed Quebec, 4-1, with Chico Maki scoring twice.

Springfield's league-leading Indians shellacked Buffalo 10-1 and maintained their 10-point spread over Cleveland's runners-up. The Barons beat Quebec 2-1 Saturday but blew the opportunity to gain when they were beaten Sunday by Rochester.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A French doctor was shot while boating with his family on the Saigon river—the fourth foreigner killed by Communist terrorists in South Viet Nam in four months. Dr. Claude Aine, 42, was ambushed 10 miles north of the Saigon Yacht Club with his wife, three children and a French air line pilot. The others escaped by jumping into the water.

BURY PLANE CRASH VICTIM ON TUESDAY

CHICAGO (AP)—Services will be held Tuesday for Stephen Baltz, 11, victim of Friday's collision of two planes in New York, who survived for 26 hours.

The services will be in First Methodist church in suburban Evanston, with the Rev. Dr. Harold A. Bosley officiating. Stephen's body arrived from New York Sunday night.

Stephen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Baltz, and their daughter, Randee, 8, came home from New York by train. Stephen had been aboard a United Air Lines jet, one of the two planes that collided over New York Friday morning. All 127 persons aboard the planes, except Stephen, were killed instantly or minutes after the crash. Stephen died Saturday of critical injuries.

"HUMAN EXPERIENCE"

Baltz, who is vice president and general counsel of the Admiral Corp., told reporters that the death of his son "was a great, warm human experience, as well as a tragedy."

"The kindness of the people was a revelation of human kindness and was wonderful," Baltz said. "There were so many who offered their skin or their blood to help Stephen get better. When they called we were strangers and then we had a bond between us, for so many of them had had the same tragic experience in their own lives."

HAND OF FATE

It was only through a turn of fate that Stephen was aboard the big jet. He had been scheduled to fly to New York with his mother and sister last Wednesday to visit Mrs. Baltz's parents in Yonkers, N.Y., but had been kept home to recover from a sore throat.

His father put him aboard the plane last Friday and then went to his office. As soon as he was notified of the crash he flew to New York and with his wife stood vigil at his son's side until the boy died early Saturday afternoon.

Father Of College Student Expires

PITTSBURGH (AP)—John C. Manning, a Pittsburgh Post-Gazette copy editor, suffered a fatal heart attack Sunday night at his desk in the newspaper office. He was 51.

He joined the Post-Gazette last April after the newspaper purchased the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph. He is survived by his widow and a son, Robert, 18, a student at Gettysburg College.

HOLD FUNERAL SATURDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary M. Overholzer, 66, who died at her Harney home Wednesday, were held Saturday afternoon from the Elias Lutheran Church, Emmitsburg, with the Rev. Philip Bowers officiating. Interment was in the Mountain View Cemetery. Pallbearers were Harry Sprankle, George Claybaugh, Este Kiser, Atwood B. Hess, Roy Sanders and Roscoe Shindler.

PARIS (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and the other U.S. delegates to the NATO ministerial conference left by special jet plane for Washington today. Herter was accompanied by U.S. Defense Secretary Thomas Gates and Treasury Secretary Robert Anderson.

COUNTY HOME PARTY IS HELD

The 78 guests at the county home received gifts and took part in singing Christmas carols Friday evening during the annual Christmas party arranged by the auxiliary of the home.

With the Annie Danner Club of Gettysburg, the Mrs. Thomas Women's Bible Class of the local Presbyterian Church and the Men's Bible Class of Biglerville Lutheran Church participating, trees were decorated in each of the buildings at the home.

An instrumental group from Biglerville High School played various Christmas carols as part of the program and all took part in singing Christmas carols.

The visiting groups then distributed Christmas presents to all of the guests and went to the rooms of bedfast patients to give them their gifts and wish them a good Christmas.

Mrs. W. E. Jordan, matron at the home, said the guests were "delighted with the program, many commenting it was the best Christmas party they have had."

NIXON FIRED AS REDSKIN COACH

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mike Nixon, 49, has been fired as head coach of the Washington Redskins. Assistant coach Bill McPeak probably will succeed him.

That was the situation today after the Redskins closed an era at Griffith Stadium with their worst record in history—one victory, nine defeats and two ties.

The Philadelphia Eagles, the National Football League's Eastern champions, bombed the Redskins 38-23 Sunday on the passing of Norm Van Brocklin and Sonny Jurgensen. Since the Redskins are moving into Washington's new 50,000-seat stadium next fall, it was the last pro game for ancient Griffith Stadium. It also was the Redskins' best showing of the year at home.

STILL IN BASEMENT

Commendable as it was in defeat, the performance left the Redskins in the Eastern basement and failed to save the popular Nixon. George Preston Marshall, owner of the club, confirmed after the game previous reports that Nixon's contract would not be renewed. He said Nixon, ninth of his coaches in a 24-season span at Washington, had been informed two weeks ago.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO
Horse Stolen: On Saturday night the stable of Joseph Brown, in the upper part of Carroll Co., was broken into by some slow stragglers; and his finest horse taken and rode to within a short distance of Gettysburg, Pa., when he was turned loose and recovered by the owner on Sunday morning.

Fatal Accident: We regret to learn that John Riendollar, a citizen of Taneytown district, was thrown from his horse on Saturday week, and so severely injured that he died from the effects a few days afterwards.

Large Deer: A deer weighing four hundred and two pounds was recently shot near Big Pond Furnace, on the South Mountain, in this county. The animal was supposed to be about seventeen years old.

Counterfeit Money: The Philadelphia "Argus" of Thursday afternoon says: This morning a man named Stephen Payne was before Alderman Beitel, having been arrested with a lot of counterfeit money in his possession. He had several on the Western and Gettysburg banks, and a number of one dollar notes on different banks in Delaware. He also had several counterfeit half dollars in his possession. He was committed to answer.

Fifty-two members of the Georgia Legislature have issued an address to the people of South Carolina, Mississippi, Alabama and Florida, urging a convention of such of the Southern States as are desirous of co-operation.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Accident in Arentsville: On last Monday a live rabbit was caught and taken into the house by Mr. Alex Oyler's Boy, and the rabbit got loose in the room, ran to a corner where a loaded gun was standing, throwing it over, which discharged it, the load shooting off a leg of a chair and a number of shot entering the leg of Mrs. Oyler, making a painful wound; a little girl of Mr. Tuckey, who was there at the time, received several shot in the leg.

Almost A Fire: Our town made a narrow escape from another fire on Sunday morning. About 2 o'clock, whilst patrolling York street, Policeman G. W. Myers observed an unusual light about the corner of East Middle and Stratton St. and going there, found a barrel standing in the rear of Mrs. Spangler's residence burning briskly. He secured a few buckets of water and kicked the barrel to pieces, thus escaping further danger. The barrel was used for the keeping of ashes and stood close to her house and Tip-ton's broom factory. If not so opportunely discovered by Policeman Myers, the consequences might have been disastrous. The most prompt, vigorous and efficient measures in regard to the care of ashes is demanded from the authorities.

Fairfield Valley Home Lodge: The members of Valley Home Lodge, I.O.O.F., treated themselves to an oyster supper last Wednesday evening, gotten up under the supervision of that prince of caterers, Jno. C. Shertzer, and judging from the time they adjourned, I presume they had a good time.

Today's Talk

BE A BOOK BOOSTER
I run into friends everywhere, it seems, but having been a collector and booster of rare books ever since I can remember, I especially enjoy being with other book lovers.
Two such friends are Charles Honce and his beautiful wife, Emmanuella, with whom I spent a recent evening. Charlie almost drips books, so it is a joy to be with him at any time. When we get together we make a happy team of book lovers (Honce was formerly—for nearly 30 years—an important consultant for The Associated Press).

Another guest at the Honce home was a gentleman whose business is that of a diamond dealer, but he is also a book collector in his spare time!
I have yet to meet a lover of books who wasn't happy in his hobby. You see a book collector is always in a state of expectancy. There are always items he believes he will surely find somewhere. This keeps the interest high and stimulates the imagination. Books have that magic, and the hunt for the rare ones affects the mind like the coming of spring.

Be a book booster. Learn the way of books. You can't have too many if you love them from the heart up!
"Books once were men," said George Barr McCutcheon.

Just Folks

TRAGEDY
He thought when he hung up his stocking at night,
That Santa would come there and fill it all right.
No one had told him his father was poor,
And therefore, old Santa would go by his door;
No one had ever suggested to him
That Santa is humanly sordid and grim,
And only likes people with purses of gold
And popular people whose glories are told,
And people with something to give in return,
Disdaining the people who hungrily yearn
For a touch of the warmth of Christmas day cheer.
He was firm in his faith that the saint would appear.

Had he known what we know, he would never have hung
Up his stocking that night, but of course he's so young
And so trusting, I doubt that you'd make him believe That Santa forgets many boys, Christmas Eve.
So he went to his bed, of the tumbled down kind,
To dream of the joy he'd wake up to find.
And never there once entered into his head
The thought that old Santa would pass by his bed
To carry his toys and his candies to those
Who already had more than his little life knows,
Oh, cannot you save him the tragedy shocking
Of waking and finding an over-looked stocking?

GOVERNOR SPEAKS
READING, Pa. (AP) — Gov. David L. Lawrence says there is no other choice but to look upon the growth and security of Israel as an investment in our own freedom.

Lawrence Sunday told an Israel bond dinner that we are dependent upon the country as a part of "the network of freedom in a tense and troubled world."

He said the free world has an important stake in seeing that Israel's strength as an independent nation is preserved.

ROME (AP)—Three Pennsylvanians were among 50 Americans ordained Sunday to the Roman Catholic priesthood in ceremonies at the Pontifical North American College in Rome.

1,300 KIDDIES
TREATED BY EAGLES' SANTA

Approximately 1,300 children were treated by Santa Claus, courtesy of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226, on Saturday. The boys and girls of the community were treated at the Towne Theater following two hours of free movies, shown as a courtesy of the theater management, in the morning. The children of the Hoffman Home, near town, were guests for the movie and treats. Santa treated the boys at Paradise Protectors, Abbottstown, during the afternoon. Lake A. Shandbrook and Robert Teal comprised the FOE general committee for the affair.

The annual Christmas dance was held by the Junior Women's Club of Littlestown on Saturday night in the Kingsdale Fire Hall, along the Littlestown-Taneytown Rd. Approximately 130 club members and guests were in attendance. Music was furnished by Art Taylor and his orchestra. Refreshments were served. Each guest received a holly boutonniere. Holiday decorations at the windows and on the refreshment tables were candles, holly, etc. The dance was arranged by the publicity committee composed of Mrs. William M. Ebaugh, chairman. Mrs. Robert Barnes, Mrs. William Grove, Mrs. Bernard G. Kebil, Mrs. Dale Moose, Mrs. Jack E. Rebert, Mrs. Larry E. Sheets, Mrs. Jay Showmaker, Mrs. Robert B. Millheim, Mrs. William R. Keffer and Mrs. Jay R. Crouse.

MUSICAL WEDNESDAY
The annual Christmas musical will be presented by the students of the Littlestown High School on Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The program is being directed by Miss Signe Wagnild and Robert Musser, of the faculty. Members of the PTA are urged to attend and invite the public. There will be no December business meeting of the PTA.

Scoutmaster Edgar A. Wolfe has announced that the Boy Scouts of Troop 84 will have a Christmas party at the meeting on Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the community building on E. King St. Each boy should take a 50 cent gift for exchange. Mothers of the Scouts are invited to send an item of refreshments.

DANCE AT HIGH SCHOOL
"Ice Palace" was the theme for the annual Christmas dance for the Littlestown Senior High School students, and their invited guests, faculty members and their guests, held on Saturday night in the high school auditorium. Approximately 175 persons were in attendance. Music was by Don Frey and his orchestra.

The auditorium was decorated in a white and silver color scheme with huge snowballs and icicles on the walls and a flowing fountain flanked with snow trees occupied the focal point of the room. The stage featured a white palace accented with colored lights. Table centerpieces were candles in mounds of tinted snow and the dance programs were in the shape of castles. Refreshments were served by the freshmen girls, dressed in ski attire. Arrangements for the event were in charge of the Senior Class, for which Mrs. Rachael Barley and Donald C. Feaser are class advisors. Bernard Weaver was general chairman for the affair. James Kroh is the class president.

Twenty children of members of the Eta Tau Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority were entertained at their annual Christmas party on Saturday afternoon at the home of Dr. Leah A. Maitland, Maple Ave. Santa Claus arrived to distribute gifts to the children. The chapter members exchanged gifts and secret sisters were revealed. Refreshments were served to the group. The committee on arrangements for the affair comprised Mrs. Miles R. Fasnacht Jr., chairman, Mrs. Gene R. Renner and Mrs. Richard D. Thomas.

ROTARY TO MEET
The vocational service committee, composed of Paul R. Snyder, chairman, Cloy I. Crouse, Walter F. Crouse, Carl F. Hermann, Fred W. King, Preston Myers, George P. Smith and Richard Staley will be in charge of the program at the dinner meeting of the local Rotarians on Tuesday at 6:15 p.m. at Schottie's Hotel.

A Christmas party will be held at the gathering of Girl Scout Troop 61 on Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. at the engine house. There will be an exchange of gifts.

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

Two renowned poets, who manifested faith in their lives, expressed the spirit of Christmas in their poetry:
Blow, bugles of battle, the marches of peace;
East, west, north and south let the long quarrel cease;
Sing the song of great joy that the angels began,
Sing the glory of God and of good-will to man!
John Greenleaf Whittier
I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!

Death Sentences
Will Be Appealed

LAKE BUTLER, Fla. (AP)—Attorneys for four inmates of Ralston State Prison say they will appeal death sentences imposed on the prisoners Saturday.

The sentences pronounced by Circuit Judge George L. Patten were mandatory because a jury that had convicted the four of murder Dec. 2 did not recommend mercy.

The four were charged with the strangling of Alvin Cook, 25, of Miami in a cell where 12 prisoners were being held for disciplinary reasons. They were John Vile, 28, of Collingdale, Pa.; Jose Zuniga, 19, of LaVilla, Tex.; Andrew King, 32, of Tampa, and James Rankin, 27, of Cherry Valley, Ark.

SCOTT FROWNS ON KENNEDY'S
BROTHER ACT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., says President-elect John F. Kennedy's appointment of his brother to be attorney general "is a little bit ominous."

The selection of Robert F. Kennedy for the government's top legal spot "is a potential to defeat the right to know and the right of Congress to know," Scott asserted Sunday on a TV program (ABC-Issues and Answers).

Appearing with Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, Scott said:

"How will it be possible for the legislative branch to discover what the executive branch is doing if the attorney general, with the great powers of the keys to the jail, is the brother of the President?"

"I think this is unfortunate, it is a little bit ominous. And it would be like naming his brother to be commissioner of internal revenue."

POWER IS CITED

Scott said also that the attorney general will have the power to approve federal judge appointments and this gives him some control over the judiciary.

Muskie told Scott, "I don't think there is any more reason to question the wisdom of appointment of a member of the President's family to high governmental positions in the Kennedy administration than there was in the Eisenhower administration."

Muskie said Eisenhower used members of his family in posts or for missions "where obviously he valued the close relationship and the ability to understand each other which exists between members of the same family."

Scott said that most of the President-elect's cabinet appointments "have been good."

Forecast

Extended forecasts for Dec. 20 through Dec. 24:
Western Pennsylvania—Temperatures will average 10 to 13 degrees below normal, continued cold with only minor day to day temperature changes. Precipitation will average about 1/4 inch except locally in the north portion where it will be about 1/2 inch. Frequent periods of snow flurries and in the north portion occasional heavy snow squalls.
Western New York—Temperatures will average 9 to 12 degrees below normal, continued cold with only minor day to day temperature changes. Precipitation will average 1/4 to 1/2 inch, occurring as frequent periods of snow flurries and near the Great Lakes occasionally heavy snow squalls.
Eastern Pennsylvania, southeastern New York and New Jersey—Temperatures are expected to average 2 to 8 degrees below normal with little day to day temperature change. Precipitation may total 1.6 inch, occurring mainly as snow flurries in north portion throughout the period.
Middle Atlantic States—Temperatures will average 4 to 8 degrees below normal. Minor temperature changes, little if any precipitation.

COE'S PLAY
BIG SURPRISE TO BROADWAY

By WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—A big surprise of the Broadway season is "All the Way Home," which went from box office bomb to boom in 24 hours.
"Which just proves that not all drama happens onstage," enthuses producer Fred Coe.
Based on the novel, "A Death in the Family," which posthumously won James Agee the Pulitzer Prize in 1958, the play opened Nov. 30 at the Belasco to two raves and five respectful reviews in the daily press.
NEW EXPERIENCE
The mixed reception was a new experience for Coe and director Arthur Penn. They previously had won smash acclaim for joint enterprise in "Two for the Seesaw" and "The Miracle Worker." Depression deepened when the box office sold just $883 of tickets the chairman of a newly created policy committee and given some of the powers now in the hands of the floor leader, such as making committee appointments.

He said he considered this a compromise proposal.
Sen. James S. Berger, Potter, who was floor leader in the past two sessions and is a candidate for re-election, declined comment on the moves by Kessler and other Taylor people. He also reserved comment when asked specifically if he would be willing to take the floor leader's job again if it meant surrendering some of his power to Taylor.

MAY BE OPPOSITION

On this score, Kessler indicated that Berger might run into opposition for re-election if he declined to do so.

"If Jimmy Berger won't go along, we may have to go whole hog," Kessler said, intimating that Taylor supporters might try to win the Harrisburger the floor the floor leader's post. The Lancaster lawmaker said he had approached several people last week about this prospect but decided later to try for a compromise.

One GOP senator, who refused to be identified, said the caucus might turn into a "real rumble" if there is a move to strip away some of the floor leader's responsibilities and hand them to Taylor.

Sen. Edward J. Kessler, Lancaster, said he wanted Taylor named

ELECTORAL
VOTE TODAY

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
WASHINGTON (AP) — The 537 persons who compose the Electoral College meet in the 50 states today to cast the presidential vote that really counts.

There is no doubt that the electors will name Democrat John F. Kennedy. But the size of his margin still is uncertain.

An 11th hour partial recount switched Hawaii from the column of Republican Richard M. Nixon to the column of Kennedy by 55 votes. A circuit judge has indicated he now will order a recount of all the state's precincts.

Counting Hawaii's three votes for Kennedy and barring unforeseen defections of some electors—who are only morally bound to support the winner of the popular vote in their states—the count at the end of the day should be:
Kennedy 303
Nixon 220
Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va. 14

NEED 269 VOTES
At least 269 votes are needed to win.

Byrd was not a candidate, but he now is the choice of 6 of Alabama's 11 Democratic electors and all of Mississippi's 8. The 14 ran unpledged don Nov. 8.

Kennedy won the popular vote in the closest presidential race in 76 years. He carried 23 states for a total national margin of about 113,000 votes. Nixon won 26 states. Unpledged electors carried Mississippi.

But Kennedy's electoral margin was a comfortable 34 more than needed of the votes that decide an election. Winner of a state's popular vote, even if the margin is a single vote, gets that state's entire electoral vote. There are exceptions. In Alabama, for example, the Democratic Party did not put up a full slate of electors pledged to Kennedy this year. Instead, the Democratic slate of 11 electors had six unpledged and five pledged to Kennedy.

FORMAL COUNT JAN. 3

The 537 electors meet in their state capitals at various times during the day, ranging from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. EST.

Their votes will be formally counted by Congress in joint session Jan. 3.

next day — insufficient for one day's operating costs.

A short conference, and the grim decision to close Saturday night was published. That did it.

The following day, Friday, box office revenue jumped to $2,600. On Saturday receipts at the matinee were $3,754, for the evening performance, $4,011.

BOOM ON TICKETS

Coe and Arthur Cantor, his coproducer, decided that night to give the show another chance.

A lot of good breaks followed—Ed Sullivan lauded the drama on his television show, other enthusiasts bought newspaper ads extolling the sensitively done drama of a boy and his family.

The last-minute box office boom held steady: $27,000 the first full week, $20,000 last week despite Monday's blizzard.

Eddie Arcaro has ridden in six of eight Laurel International races, winning in 1964 with Fisherman.

Capacity Crowd Expected For GHS-Delone Game On Warriors' Court Tuesday

A capacity crowd is expected here Tuesday night when the undefeated Gettysburg High cagers seek their fourth straight victory against Delone Catholic (3-2).

The Warriors have been impressive in registering victories over West York, York Suburban and Westminster but are certain to run into much more opposition with the Squires.

Delone has lost to Hanover and Chambersburg while triumphing over Bermudian, Spring Grove and West York. Their victory over West York was by a 77-55 score at McSherrystown. Gettysburg beat the Bulldogs 48-42 at West York.

Cyril Weaver, a Senior, has been the most consistent scorer for Delone although Ron Riley 6-3, Don Hartlaub 6-0, Bill Timmins 6-1, Dick Rosensteel, Dick Neiderer and Jerry Sanders have all contributed much to the success of the Squires.

Coach George Forney is expected to start his regular lineup of Roger Ecker, Don Waddell, Greg Matland, Howie Miller and Mark Eckert.

At 6:45 the Warrior reserves (1-2) will meet the Squires jayvees (1-4).

OTHER GAMES

Four other county teams will be involved in their second Adams-Franklin League games Tuesday evening, and all will be on foreign floors.

Littletown (1-0) plays at Fannett-Metal (0-1); Fairfield (0-1) plays at Greencastle (1-0); New Oxford (1-0) travels to Buchanan (0-1) and Bermudian (0-1) is at St. Thomas (1-0).

Biglerville, with a three-game winning streak after losing its first two games, will seek revenge for a 55-48 setback in its opener when it tangles with East Pennsboro at Enola.

Friday night's activities will be limited to two games, both of which are varsity-Alumni affairs. Gettysburg and Biglerville will oppose Alumni teams that night.

JUNIOR GRID LEAGUE TITLE CLASH JAN. 1

By JOHN CHANDLER

The Los Angeles Chargers and Houston Oilers, will meet for the American Football League title Jan. 1.

It will be the rubber game between the Chargers and Oilers. Earlier in the season, Houston beat Los Angeles 38-28, but several weeks ago the Chargers won 24-21.

With Houston wrapping up the Eastern Division crown and Los Angeles the Western title a week ago, Sunday's final games were meaningless as far as the standings went.

Los Angeles ripped across 17 points in the fourth quarter to rock the New York Titans 50-43. Houston blasted the Boston Patriots 37-21. In one other Sunday game, the Dallas Texans downed the Buffalo Bills 24-7. Saturday the Oakland Raiders overpowered the Denver Broncos 48-10.

HURLS 3 TD PASSES

Jack Kemp, threw three touchdown passes and scored one himself for the Chargers but a 41-year-old teammate, Ben Agajanian, chipped in with three field goals and five conversions to gain top scoring honors with 14 points. Al Dorow tossed three TD passes for New York.

It was 43-33 New York when Kemp flipped an 11-yard scoring pass to Blanche Martin. Kemp then scored on a 5-yard run, and Agajanian iced the works with his third field goal from 27 yards out.

Billy Cannon returned a kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown, and his 38-yard punt return opened the gates for the 17 points Houston rolled up in a final period burst against Boston.

Jack Spikes scored one TD for Dallas, kicked a field goal and three extra points and teammate Cotton Davidson tossed two touchdowns to lead the Texans over Buffalo.

OHIO STATE IS WINNER AGAIN OVER WICHITA

By JACK CLARY

Associated Press Sports Writer

Ohio State and Bradley the 1-2 punch in college basketball, will find out this week if they've learned the art of self defense.

The Buckeyes, defending NCAA champions, play Loyola of Chicago tonight and then go for victory No. 6 Thursday night against Detroit (4-1). Ohio State was rated first in last week's Associated Press poll and the Titans were third.

Both were victorious over the weekend, Ohio State winning over tough little Wichita 93-82 and Detroit beating Nebraska 71-62.

PLAYS TONIGHT

Bradley, second ranked, plays Gonzaga tonight, then tries to settle an old score with Missouri Valley foe Cincinnati. The Braves have been runner-up to Cincinnati in the MVC for the past three years—when Oscar Robertson led the Bearcats.

Now Robertson is gone and Cincinnati is just another hall club with a 4-2 mark. Bradley is 6-0 and ran its winning streak over the two seasons to 12 straight with an 88-66 victory Saturday night over Wisconsin.

With the Christmas recess in progress or about to begin in most colleges and universities, the program is just the calm before the tournament storm which will burst forth in every corner of the country next week.

ONLY ONE GAME

Most of the nation's top teams play only one game this week. Fifth-ranked North Carolina (3-2) meets Creighton; St. Bonaventure (6-0) plays Western Ontario and Duke (5-0) goes against Georgia Tech, tonight.

Fourth-ranked Indiana (4-1) plays Notre Dame Tuesday night while ninth-rated Louisville and 10th-ranked North Carolina State also have a light schedule. The Cardinals, 8-0 after beating Georgetown (Ky.) 80-63 Saturday night, take on Louisiana State Wednesday night and the Wolfpack, an 82-76 winner over Georgia Tech for a 5-1 mark, plays LaSalle Tuesday night.

Elsewhere, St. John's, ranked 7th with a 4-0 mark, takes on Pitt and Gonzaga this week while Duke (No. 8), pits its 5-0 mark against Georgia Tech and Florida.

CLEAN SWEEP

Indiana won over Nevada 80-52, North Carolina beat Kansas 78-70, and St. Bonaventure easily handled Morehead 106-88 to make it a clean sweep for the top-ranked clubs.

Auburn tabbed itself as the team to beat for the Southeastern Conference crown, beating Alabama 74-62 for the Birmingham Classic title, making its record 5-0 this year, and running its winning streak to 14. Duquesne's 80-66 victory over hometown foe Pitt gave it the Steel Bowl title while Portland beat Gonzaga 73-54 for the City of Roses tournament title at Portland, Ore.

Temple defeated Kentucky for the first time in four years, 66-58, and Villanova knocked Niagara from the ranks of the unbeaten with an 83-74 victory. St. Joseph's opened defense of its Middle Atlantic Conference title with an easy 81-61 victory over Lehigh.

Bruce Drysdale, Temple's 5-10 guard, and Earl Proctor sparked the Owls to victory, getting 25 and 19 points respectively against a Kentucky five which lacked the ability of previous Wildcat teams.

Villanova was led again by the high-scoring Hubie White who collected 30 points.

Jack Egan was high man for St. Joseph's with 30 points.

Pirate Schedule For '61 Announced

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Forty-seven night games highlight the 1961 home schedule of the World Champion Pittsburgh Pirates, announced Saturday.

Only two doubleheaders are slated, both with the Chicago Cubs—Memorial Day, May 30, and Sunday, Aug. 27.

The Pirates will open at Forbes Field, April 18, against the Cubs and close their home season Sunday, Oct. 1, against the Cincinnati Redlegs.

Tennis Teams Fly To Sunny Weather

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A twin-engine airplane chartered to fly the University of Kentucky basketball team home was damaged by fire Sunday moments before the team was to board it.

Guards at International Airport said the plane, a DC-3 operated by Purdue Aeronautics Corp., Lafayette, Ind., struck a ground power unit used to charge batteries but which the unit crew had failed to remove from under the plane.

The pilot and co-pilot were the only persons aboard. Neither was injured. The team went home by a commercial airline flight.

GREEN BAY TO MEET EAGLES FOR NFL TITLE

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Green Bay Packers, representing the smallest city in the National Football League, today held one of the circuit's biggest prizes after grabbing the elusive Western Conference crown for the first time since 1944.

The Packers ended the struggle for honors in the Western sector Saturday by riding Bart Starr's pinpoint passing to a 35-21 victory over Los Angeles that sends them into the championship game against Philadelphia's Eastern titlists next Monday.

The Green Bay triumph also dethroned Baltimore's two-time champion Colts, brought the Packers' record to 8-4 and completed an amazing flip flop under Coach Vince Lombardi's guidance for the club that finished the 1958 campaign with the worst mark in the league.

RUNNER-UP BOWL

The Eagles wound up the season Sunday with a 10-2 record by whipping Washington 38-28 in Mike Nixon's final game as Redskins coach, and Cleveland and Detroit earned the right to meet in the NFL's runner-up bowl in Miami, Jan. 7.

The Browns, beaten six consecutive times by New York, came from behind and defeated the Giants 48-34 on a 27-point explosion in the final period that settled the head-on clash for second place in the Eastern Division.

The Lions qualified for the runner-up bowl by thrashing the Chicago Bears 36-0 for their seventh victory in the last nine games while outdistancing San Francisco for the post-season berth on a point basis.

Detroit and the 49ers finished in a tie for second place in the West with 7-5 records when San Francisco knocked off the Colts 34-10 and pushed them into fourth. St. Louis took fourth place in the East with a 38-7 win over Pittsburgh.

The Packers wrapped up their first title in 16 years when Paul Hornung hit Max McGee with a 40-yard touchdown pass for a 28-7 halftime lead the Rams (4-7-1) were never able to overcome. Hornung also scored once on a short plunge and kicked five conversions, raising his NFL total point record to 176.

Los Angeles took a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a 40-yard TD toss from Billy Wade to Tom Wilson before the Green Bay onslaught began. Starr heaved scoring aerials of 57 and 91 yards to McGee and Boyd Dowler, respectively, then Paul Winslow recovered a blocked punt in the end zone for another touchdown and Hornung connected with McGee.

TEMPLE STAR TOPS SCORERS

Temple's Bruce Drysdale has taken the lead in individual scoring in the Middle Atlantic Conference's university division basketball game.

Drysdale scored 13 field goals and a pair of free throws in his first conference game for a 28-point average. The Owl junior has connected on 72.2 per cent of his shots from the floor to lead the division in percentage also.

Delaware's Jack Baly, also with one MAC contest behind him, has scored all six of his free throw attempts to lead in free throw percentage.

The top rebounder at this stage in the season is Joe Carey of LaSalle. He collected 21 rebounds in his initial conference outing to rank ahead of three players with an average of 14 rebounds.

LaSalle is the top team offensively with an average of 85 points a game, while Delaware has the best defensive record, a 43-point average.

BULLET MARKS

In statistics, as of December 13, Gettysburg players turned in the following marks: Individual scoring, Bob Parker 38; Ron Warner 34; field goal percentage, Parker, second, 17-25 for .680 mark; free throw percentage, Warner, 16-20, Parker 4-5, for .300

WARRIORS ARE STILL BEHIND BOSTON CELTS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Philadelphia Warriors still are dogging the trial of the league leading Boston Celtics in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division, but had to come from behind Sunday night to overcome the Royals at Cincinnati.

Thanks to Wilt Chamberlain and Guy Rodgers, Philadelphia stepped up the pace in the second half after trailing 59-57, and defeated the Royals 128-112.

Chamberlain scored 32 points and grabbed 38 rebounds, a Cincinnati garden record. Rodgers came up with 20 points, and had 16 assists, also a garden record. Oscar Robertson scored 31 points for Cincinnati, 22 in the first half.

HAWKS EDGE NATIONALS

In the only other game, the St. Louis Hawks snatched victory in the last 26 seconds when Bob Pettit made two free throws to edge the Syracuse Nationals 104-103.

Pettit scored 26 points and Cliff Hagan 20 for the Hawks, leaders in the Western Division race. Dave Gambee, John Kerr and Dolph Schayes each tallied 18 for Syracuse.

On Saturday, Boston downed Los Angeles 140-112, while St. Louis defeated New York 116-103.

To Pick Successor To Archie Moore

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Harold Johnson of Philadelphia, Eric Schoepner of Germany and Willie Pastrano of Miami Beach, Fla., will compete in an elimination tournament to succeed Archie Moore as the National Boxing Association's light-heavyweight boxing champion.

Paul Sullivan, chairman of the NBA's world championships committee, said Saturday Johnson, the No. 1 contender, will fight Schoepner or Pastrano late next month or early in February at a place to be selected.

The winner will be declared the NBA champion, Sullivan said. Then the champion must defend the title against the remaining contender within 90 days after the first bout.

12-Year-Old Boy Bags Doe

One of the youngest hunters in Adams County to report success in the 1960 deer season is 12-year-old Jay Galloway, The Gettysburg Times carrier in Idaville.

Hunting Saturday afternoon with his father and grandfather on the latter's farm at Idaville, Jay brought down a doe about 3:30 p.m. He used his dad's rifle on his first deer hunting expedition. This is the first year that Jay had a hunting license. His father, Robert Galloway, and his granddad, Charles Tate, also bagged doe before the afternoon was over. Saturday was the one-day open season on antlerless deer for 1960.

Jay's doe dressed out at 80 pounds.

Browns In Small Elevator Mishap

NEW YORK (AP)—The Cleveland Browns won the football game from the New York Giants Sunday, but before it even started Jimmy Brown and six hefty Cleveland teammates lost six stories—rushing.

The seven players, including the 228 pound fullback, and a bellboy entered an elevator at the sixth floor of a hotel near Yankee Stadium. The car immediately took off and didn't stop until it hit the basement.

No one was hurt in the sudden drop and the players walked to the stadium, where Brown gained 110 yards in the Browns 48-34 victory.

PITT LOSES TO DUQUESNE IN BOWL FINALE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Ned Twyman broke an individual scoring record for the Steel Bowl, but Duquesne Coach Red Manning has words of praise for everyone involved in the Dukes' tournament victory.

"It was a great team victory," Manning said Sunday. "The boys put out all the way. They hustled. Playing two nights in a row with five or six boys takes a lot out of them."

"(Bill) Stromple only scored a couple of points in the final, but he was good on defense. (Mike) Rice made some key rebounds and (Bob) Slobodnik was good around the boards. And of course, Twyman had that hot hand."

BEAT PITT

The Dukes survived a late second-half scare Saturday to defeat defending champion Pitt 80-66 at Pitt Field House. The Panthers had come within two points of the Dukes, 62-60, with about six minutes remaining. But then the Dukes scored 12 straight points.

Twyman had 31 points. Combined with his 30 the night before, it gave him the record for two games. The old mark of 59 was held by All-America Don Hennon of Pitt. He set it in 1958.

Manning talked about the apparent transformation in Twyman from an erratic shooter to a player who is taking the good shot and averaging slightly better than 23 points a game.

GOOD SHOTS

"I think the kids have gotten to 'him,'" Manning said. "They made him realize that if he is patient with his shooting, he'll get the good shots."

Manning also admitted he sent in instructions to set up Twyman for the record-breaking points, adding "We didn't hurt anybody by doing it."

John Fridley was high man for Pitt with 14 points. The victory gave the Dukes a 4-3 lead in Steel Bowl finals with Pitt. They have played for the title in the last six years and in 1953. The Panthers walloped the Dukes last year 75-44.

Duquesne now has a 6-1 record while Pitt is 2-4. In the consolation contest Saturday night, Colgate downed Tennessee 76-73.

SANTA and the BOY FISH by Lucrece Hudgins Beale

SYNOPSIS: Michael has found the wrecked ship carrying the black pearl. He returns to the surface of the water to find the Monster of the Deep holding Costenbricker prisoner in a trunk. The Monster, who claims to own the pearl, hurls the trunk into the sea!

Chapter Thirteen
THE COPY FISH

Michael watched in horror as the chest with Costenbricker in it went over the cliff. He ran to the edge and watched it hurtling down and into the sea.

"He'll die down there!" he cried. "Even if he gets out of the chest, he can't swim and he'll drown!"

"True," said the Monster. He grinned through his red whiskers and took a step towards the boy.

Michael stood petrified. The Monster took another step. Michael's knees began to tremble. He tried to speak but no word came from his mouth.

The Monster took another step and abruptly, Michael found the power to move. He turned to dive from the cliff. But never before had he dived from so great a height and the sight of the water so far below terrified him. Between the Monster and the sea, he did not know which way to go. He glanced around in panic and suddenly saw the rope, one end still tied to the rock and the other end curled at the cliff's edge. He pounced on the rope and hurled the free end over the cliff. Quickly he slipped over the edge and began to descend, hand over hand, to the sea.

The rope swayed back and forth, scraping him against the side of the cliff. His arms ached. His hands burned. Still he struggled on until he was halfway down.

Then an awful thing happened. Though he kept on descending, hand over hand, he was getting no nearer to the sea. The faster he dropped, the more he seemed to stand still! The rope was being pulled back to the top of the cliff and, for every foot he struggled down, he was pulled back two.

He looked up and saw the grinning Monster peering over the cliff and hauling up the rope. He looked down. Each moment the water was getting farther and farther away. Suddenly he let go of the rope and fell head over heels into the sea.

He hit the water with a force that yanked back his mask and almost tore the lung from his back. It sent him all the way to the bottom where he arrived gasping for breath.

He choked on the sea water and struggled to replace the mask that fed him air from the lung. Just in time he got it back in place and, without pausing to rest, swam off to search for the sea chest. A group of fierce looking copy fish appeared out of nowhere and surrounded him. Razor sharp teeth protruded from their mouths and their yellow eyes blinked off and on like electric lights. Wide-eyed with terror Michael braced himself to escape. But the copy fish paid no attention to him. They stared entranced at strange bubbles drifting lazily up through the water.

"Why, those are air bubbles!" thought Michael. "It's Costenbricker!"

He tracked the bubbles to the bottom and sure enough there was the sea chest. The force of its fall had almost buried it in the sand, but the bubbles rising steadily from its cracks showed that there was still air in it and a furious banging on the top showed that Costenbricker was still alive.

Frantically, Michael dug out the chest but try as he might he could not lift it from the bottom. He tore at the lock with his fingers but could not break it.

The copy fish swarmed around him watching curiously. They came closer and closer. They wanted to copy the Boyfish, do what he did. They began to poke at the lock and in no time their sharp teeth had cut right through it and the chest flew open.

DONALD DUCK

love as Silent Night, Holy Night.

The next morning, Christmas Day, Mohr hurried to his friend's home with the manuscript of his precious song. Gruber read it intently and exclaimed with uncontrolled enthusiasm. "Friend Mohr, you have found it—the right song—God be praised!"

Gruber, thrilled with the spirit of his friend's verses, set to work to compose the perfect melody for "the perfect song." Finally, the soft, flowing air we now know came to him. "It sings itself, your song," he cried to the delighted priest.

Gruber's real contribution to music lies in the beauty and simplicity of the tune, in its perfect blending with Mohr's verses. The two men sang the new hymn over together to have it ready for the church devotions that night.

Later in the same evening, when the villagers were gathered in the gray little mountain church, Mohr and Gruber sang their Christmas song before its first audience. It touched the listeners deeply, and after the service, they thanked the two friends with tears of joy in their eyes. A new hymn had been born.

The story of how the song spread from its mountain home in the Tyrol to become one of the Christmas favorites in all parts of the world is an enchanting one.

Only very slowly did it come into fame. For nearly a year after its first rendition, the song lay almost forgotten in Gruber's desk. Then, in November, 1819, the church organ had to be repaired, and the repair man, when he had finished with his work, asked Gruber to play something to test the organ. The beautiful melody of Silent Night came to Gruber's mind and he played it with all its powerful yet simple beauty.

So entranced was the organ-builder that he begged to take a copy of the song with him to his own town across the mountains.

From one music-lover to another the hymn was passed on.

Still, it was without a name and was known simply as The Tyrolean Song, because it had first come from the Tyrolean Alps. With that title it was printed in 1842 for the first time, 24 years after it had been composed.

It became widely used in Austria and Germany. On their American concert tour (1839-1843) the Rainiers, a family of singers from the Tyrol, brought this new Christmas carol with them and sang it before large audiences. Within a few years it also conquered the hearts of Americans.

From that time on, the song has been put into countless other languages and carried to all parts of the world to become the best loved of all Christmas songs and hymns, a truly international Christmas anthem.

Today, a monument in Oberndorf perpetuates the memory of the men who gave us Silent Night.

The song touches a heartfelt need, and to all who bear it, it brings the Saviour's calm and peace in its strains of beauty and joy!

Christmas celebrations became so merry in Merrie Old England that they were abolished.

ished.

The Puritans prohibited the boisterous observances in the 640's. They threw out ministers who dared to hold services on Christmas Day and jailed anyone who didn't treat December 25 as a common work day.

But while the Puritans were taking over England under Oliver Cromwell, they were losing the battle of Christmas. Riots broke out in 1647 protesting the ban on the holiday. And an outraged group of 10,000 men passed a resolution declaring that if they couldn't celebrate Christmas, they'd just as soon have the king back.

A few years later, the Puritans prudently beheaded King Charles I. But the English people invited his son, Charles II, to come back in 1660 and Christmas, as well as the monarchy, was restored to England.

Queen Victoria's marriage to Prince Albert helped introduce the Christmas tree into England. Research experts say Albert brought the custom with him from Germany and set up a tree in Windsor Castle in 1841.

The British call the day after Christmas "Boxing Day," but it has nothing to do with heavyweights. According to World Book Encyclopedia, this is the day when families give money to the milkman, postman and others. In earlier days, the custom was to give Christmas boxes of food and other gifts to tradesmen and servants.

The word Xmas as a form of Christmas originated in the early Christian Church. In Greek, X is the first letter of Christ's name. It was often used a holy symbol.

The Japanese version of Santa Claus is the ancient god Hoteiosho, who has eyes in back of his head to help him see how children behave.

Stores in the U.S. depend on Christmas shoppers for one-fourth of all the sales they make during the entire year.

You don't have to go all the way to the North Pole to find Santa Claus—he has a home in Indiana. The Hoosiers named a small town after the plump gift-giver and put up a statue of him dedicated to "The Children of the World." In a typical year, some four million pieces of mail pour into the post office of the town to be remailed with the postmark "Santa Claus."

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

The genealogical data on the Bercaw (or Brokaw) family of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and points south and west is continued at this time.

According to the notes of the Rev. J. K. Demorest "there were at Conewago, as heads of families, Abraham, Ferdinand, George, John and Peter Barokaw." George, John and Peter Barokaw. Of the five, only one can boast a marked grave in the "Upper" Low Dutch Graveyard and that is George Bercaw, pioneer settler and soldier of the American Revolution. It is very possible, however, that other members of the family are buried here in unmarked graves.

The following items pertaining to the Bercaw (or Brokaw) family was found in the files of the "Adams Sentinel" (later the "Star and Sentinel") under the dates given.

4. Wednesday, September 15, 1819 —

"Died, Tuesday, September 5, 1819, at the house of Gilbert Brinkerhoff, in Mountpleasant Township, this County, Maria E. Bercaw, aged 4 years, 6 months, and 14 days. She leaves a fond father and other relatives to mourn her loss."

Note:—John Bercaw was a son of George Bercaw Sr., and his wife, Eleanor Bercaw. Therefore the little girl mentioned above was a granddaughter of this old soldier and pioneer settler. Undoubtedly Maria E. Bercaw is buried in the Upper Low Dutch Graveyard in an unmarked grave.

5. Wednesday, October 27, 1819 —

"Died, October 16, 1819, in the 24th year of her age, Mrs. Sarah Bercaw, the wife of Mr. William Bercaw, of Mountjoy Township, this County."

MENTIONED IN WILL

Note:—William Bercaw was a son of George and Eleanor Bercaw and is mentioned in his father's will. Nothing is known pertaining to Sarah, the wife of William Bercaw, except the date of her death. It is reasonably safe to state, however, that Sarah Bercaw is probably buried in the "Upper" Low Dutch Burial Ground in an unmarked grave.

6. Wednesday, March 29, 1820 — "Died, Thursday, March 23, 1820, by the Rev. Robert Grier, Mr. William Bercaw to Miss Susan Hunter, the daughter of Mr. Joseph Hunter, both of Mountjoy Township, this County."

Note:—Less than five months after the death of his first wife, William Bercaw was married, for the second time, to Susan Hunter. Apparently his grief was of short duration.

7. Wednesday, March 28, 1821 — "Died Friday, March 23, 1821, Mrs. — Bercaw the wife of Mr. William Bercaw, of Mountpleasant Township, this County."

Note:—Because the given name of the wife of William Bercaw was not included in her obituary it cannot be definitely said that this is the second wife, Susan Hunter, but such is probably the case. William Bercaw or his wives were certainly unfortunate in the matter of marriage.

8. Wednesday, November 6, 1822 —

MARRIED FOR THIRD TIME "Married, Thursday, October 31, 1822, by A. Little, Esq., Mr. Peter Bercaw, Senior, to Miss Elizabeth Peters, both of Mountjoy Township, this County."

Note:—It is rather difficult to believe the evidence of the printed word—in some instances—but facts are facts and apparently Peter Bercaw, Senior, was married, for the third time, just about a year before his death, to Elizabeth Peters. His first wife was Amy Coshun, his second Anne Loyster. It is logical to assume that the second wife, at least, is buried in an unmarked grave in the "Upper" Low Dutch Graveyard. The grave of Amy Coshun, the first wife, is well marked and the stone is in good condition.

9. Tuesday, March 27, 1832 — "Married, Wednesday, March 21, 1832, by the Rev. Charles Gill McLean, Mr. Peter B. Bercaw, of Mountjoy Township, this County, to Miss Sarah Houghtelin, daughter of Mr. Hezekiah Houghtelin, of Mountpleasant Township, this County."

Note:—The exact place of Peter B. Bercaw on the family tree is not known at this time but he was probably a grandson of either Peter or George Bercaw, brothers, pioneer settlers and soldiers of the American Revolution.

10. Monday, August 19, 1833 — "Died, August 9, 1833, Mrs. Eleanor Bercaw, widow of Mr. George Bercaw, deceased, of Strabane Township, this County."

GRAVES ARE MARKED

Note:—Eleanor Bercaw was the wife of George Bercaw, the brother of Peter Bercaw Sr. Both George and his wife are buried in the "Upper" Low Dutch Churchyard and the graves are marked — the inscriptions follow:—

1. "Sacred to the memory of George Bercaw, died May 29, 1813, aged 59 years, 11 months, and 26 days."

2. "In memory of Eleanor Bercaw, died August 9, 1833, aged 74 years, 1 month, and 23 days."

A thorough study of the will on file in the Adams County Court-house pertaining to the Bercaw family add quite a bit to the genealogy of that family. In Will Book "A," page 211, is a copy of the will of Margaret Bercaw, written May 20, 1801 and entered to probate September 6, 1803. Margaret Bercaw styles herself —

"the widow of George Bercaw, late of York County, Pennsylvania," and in her will she mentions the following members of her family:—

CHRIST CHURCH XMAS CANTATA GIVEN SUNDAY

A large congregation attended the service on Sunday morning in Christ United Church of Christ when the choir presented a cantata. Mrs. George W. Motter is the choir director and Fred A. Warner is organist.

Prior to the cantata there was the organ prelude, processional hymn "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," invocation, scripture, prayer and offering.

A cantata for Christmas was "Carol Service with Nine Lessons for Christmas" by Theron Kirk and the narrator was George W. Motter. The service was as follows: "Prelude on 'O Come, O Come Emmanuel'; 'Once in Royal David's City'; J. J. Gauntlett; 'Midwinter'; Gustav Holst; 'The Lord at First Did Adam Make,' traditional; 'Now Every Child That Dwells on Earth,' Harry Garjeon; 'O Little One Sweet, O Little One Mild,' S. Scheidt; 'O Little Town of Bethlehem,' Louis Redner; 'Magnificat'; 'While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks'; 'In Dulce Jubilo,' 14th century German carol; 'We ly:—

1. Daughter — Magdalen Bercaw — "my bed and bedstead and all the bedclothes thereto belonging."

2. "Remainder of my household furniture to be sold at my decease and the proceeds to be divided equally between my four daughters."

3. "The remainder of my estate to be divided into twelve equal shares and given to my twelve sons."

The notes on the Bercaw (or Brokaw) family will be continued in this column next week.

Three King of Orient Are," John Hopkins, soloists were Clyde L. Sterner, James D. Sterner and Charles A. Grove; "O Come All Ye Faithful," J. F. Wades, choir and congregation.

PROGRAM ON CHRISTMAS

The service concluded with the benediction by the pastor, the Rev. G. Howard Koons; recessional hymn, "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing"; organ postlude. Ray F. Slaybaugh, B. James Topper, Mervin K. Myers and Robert C. Markle served as ushers. The altar flowers and bulletins were given in memory of Mrs. Edna M. Snyder by her children and grandchildren. Bulletin sponsors should contact Lester L. Hilker. Baskets of flowers were placed in memory of A. G. Ealy. A rosebud was placed on the altar in honor of Lorie Ann Brown, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Brown.

Christ Church choir will rehearse on Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. The annual Christmas program will be presented on Christmas Day at 10:30 a.m. when an envelope offering will be received for the Hoffman Home. The preparatory service will be held Thursday, December 29, at 7:30 p.m. and Holy Communion services will be held on Friday, December 30, at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, January 1, at 10:30 a.m.

NEWS OF REDEEMER'S

The Rev. Glenn Flinchbaugh, pastor, delivered a sermon on the subject "The Word Became Flesh" for the worship on the fourth Sunday in Advent in Redeemer's United Church of Christ. The Senior Choir, accompanied by Mrs. George A. Stonesifer, sang the anthem "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day," Ringwald. The altar flowers were placed in memory of Joseph H. Hahn and his sister, Mrs. Emma Jane Fisher, by their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bowers; baskets of flowers were in memory of A. G. Ealy. It was noted that an electric toaster was given to the Hoffman Home for Children by the Junior and Senior High School Girls' Classes.

Final Advent rehearsals for the choirs will be held on Thursday evening: Cherubs at 6:45 p.m., Juniors at 6:45 p.m. and Seniors at 7:30 p.m. Advent services at Redeemer's include a candlelight service on Christmas Eve at 7:30 p.m. when there will be a meditation by the pastor and the Senior Choir under the direction of Samuel H. Higinbotham, with Mrs. George Stonesifer singing Fred Waring's arrangement of "The Song of Christmas." On Christmas Day there will be a combined Sunday School and church service in the sanctuary from 10 to 11:15 a.m. The children, the junior choir and the pastor will conduct the service at that time. The winter preparatory service will be concluded in the worship on Sunday, January 1, at 10:30 a.m. Holy Communion will be observed on Sunday January 8, at 8:30 and 10:30 a.m.

XMAS EVE SERVICE

"The Miracle at Cana" was the subject of the sermon delivered by the Rev. William C. Karns at the worship service on Sunday morning in St. John's Lutheran Church. The epistle lesson was read from Philippians 4:4-7, and the gospel lesson from John 1:19-28. An anthem was sung by the choir, The altar flowers were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm I. Heiser in honor of the seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. Unger. Baskets of flowers were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Trostle in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Wolfe; a basket of flowers was presented in honor of the 56th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harry DeGroff by the children. Ushers Sunday were W. E. Stites, John

Late Decision Is Beneficial To Flyer

READING, Pa. (AP) — Arthur T. McGonigle, Republican candidate for governor of Pennsylvania in 1958, said Sunday that a last minute decision kept him from boarding a Trans World Airlines plane that later collided with another over New York City, killing 135 persons.

McGonigle said he learned Friday he could get a direct flight from Dayton, Ohio, to Reading and decided not to take the New York bound plane. With him was Martin R. McCoy, a Reading business associate.

Killed By Auto Stepping Off Curb

SOMERDALE, N. J. (AP) — Ray Hartner, 52, of Clementon, N. J., was struck and killed by an auto early today when he apparently stepped off a curb on the White Horse Pike, police said.

Hartner was dead on arrival at Gentzler, Lester Myers and Theron Bair.

St. John's Junior Choir will rehearse on Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. and Senior Choir will follow at 7:30 p.m. The annual Christmas Eve candlelight service will be held on Saturday at 11 p.m. Christmas Day services will be Sunday School at 9 a.m. and worship at 10:15 a.m.

The annual Christmas program of recitations, exercises and songs by the Sunday School was presented Sunday evening in St. John's Church.

Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital i nearby Camden. He suffered multiple injuries, hospital attendant said.

Police said that William Cox, 22 of Maple Shade, N. J., the driver of the car, told them he did not see Hartner until he was directly in front of the vehicle and it was too late to stop in time.

Cox was held under $1,000 bail on a charge of death by auto.

"Blessed Art Thou, Mary"

Mary, Fairest Daughter Of Israel Prepares For Her Joyful Wedding Day; House Is Decorated

EDITOR'S NOTE: The great human love story of the Gospels is that of Joseph and Mary, the virgin chosen to bear the Son of God. But the New Testament account of their story is skimpy. Here, drawing on non-canonical accounts that circulated widely in the early church, an award-winning Associated Press religion writer recreates their story in all its warmth and glory. This is the first of five articles.

By GEORGE CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

THOU art all fair, my daughter, all grace and comeliness. Thy skin is silken to the touch, thy form like the work of a skilled craftsman. How gentle thou art, my child, how sweet the perfume of thy hair.

Adoration welled in the heart of the girl's aging mother, Anna, as she combed and smoothed her daughter's long, dark tresses. It was a deep-felt morning. For on this day, Mary would be espoused.

How beautiful she is, and pure of soul. Ah, beloved daughter, thou art the treasure of this house. There is no spot on thee. Thy innocence is a garden enclosed, and thou seem over young for wifehood.

Yet Mary was 15, the proper age for taking a husband. She sat now on a stool, in dewey-eyed reverie, as Anna arrayed her for the ceremony. Her braids had been loosened and flowed over the nape of her neck to her waist.

Lithe, lovely child, thy parents exult in thee, and shall miss the song of thy rising and lying down.

Anna laid the comb aside and began to weave a fillet of yellow marguerites for Mary's hair. The guests would soon be arriving, and all must be made ready.

"A HEAVY TIME"

It was a joyous, yet also heavy time. Mary was not just another daughter of Israel. She had been the sunrise of life to her elderly parents, Anna and Joachim. For 20 years of marriage they had been childless until her coming. Anna remembered how unceasingly she had prayed in those years.

"O God of my fathers," she had implored again and again, "bless me, as thou didst bless the womb of Sarah in her old age, and givest her a son, Isaac."

Once, kneeling under a laurel tree, she noticed the young sparrows nesting above, and the grief burst from her in a wail.

"Woe unto me. I am not comparable to the very fowls of the heavens; to the very beasts of the earth, for even the beasts are fruitful before thee, O Lord."

"A SIGN OF SIN"

Their lack of issue had sorely afflicted Joachim, an otherwise man. He owned vast numbers of sheep, the greatest herd in the Jezreel valley, and a splendid house in Nazareth.

Yet his affliction could not ease the gall of childlessness.

It was a scandal for a Jew to fail to beget children, a sign of sin and God's disfavor and, in time, the priests had come to scorn his generous festival offerings.

"It is not lawful for thee to offer thy gifts," they said, "seeing thou hast not begat any seed in Israel."

Joachim had betaken himself to the desert for long periods of fasting and prayer. And then, at last, it had come to pass. Anna

Mary had grown radiant in spirit, rejoicing in worship, hymns and the sacred statutes.

sensed it, like a whisper in her soul, a stirring warmth in her flesh.

"SHE HATH CONCEIVED"

She rushed from the house in the twilight and saw Joachim coming from the fields with his shepherds and flocks. Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear, break forth into singing. At the gate of the fold, she met him, and threw her arms about his neck.

"Now I know that the Lord God hath greatly blessed us," she exclaimed. "Behold, she that was barren hath conceived!"

The tears of the aging couple, their faces pressed close, flowed together.

"As the Lord my God liveth," Anna had vowed "whatsoever I bring forth, whether it be male or female, I will devote it to the Lord my God."

Jubilant and singing praises, Joachim had made a special pilgrimage to Jerusalem to offer 100 goats, 20 lambs without spot or blemish and 12 tender calves to the Lord in thanksgiving.

Anna still remembered the first words she uttered after her nine months were fulfilled and she delivered on the 15th day of the month Hathor.

"What have I brought forth?" "A female," the midwife answered.

How swiftly the years had flown since then, and now the girl-child was to be married. Anna's fingers trembled as she placed the ringlet of flowers on the crown of Mary's dark, shining head, and then straightened the folds of her woven white gown.

It was a difficult time, for a mother. She stepped back to survey the girl's appearance, striving to keep the unreasoned sense of loss from her eyes.

Looking at her with an ever-sheltering love, Anna's throat filled, and she felt worn and old and no more of use. The hours that bound them had passed. Come now, my daughter, and take thy bridal seat.

Anna reached out and caught her hand, pressing it, and led her slowly into the forechamber where the maid-servant, Judith, was busily decking the walls with leafy boughs and blossoms.

RECEIVE GUESTS

It was the custom to receive guests throughout the day before the signing of the betrothal agreement, and Mary would be there for all to see, her hair flowing to its full length as a sign of her maidenhood.

How strangely life unfolded. Just as the end of Mary's childhood was being marked with festivities, so was its beginning. That other, earlier celebration had scarcely faded in Anna's memory.

Mary had been a healthy, happy youngster, taking her first toddling steps at the age of nine months. When she was a year old, Joachim had made a great feast, inviting the whole village of Nazareth and even priests from Jerusalem.

In the midst of the jollity and lifting of wine cups, he had stood up, signalled for silence, and then prayed:

"BLESS THIS CHILD"

"O God of our fathers, bless this child, and give her a name renowned for ever among all generations."

"Amen and amen," the assemblage had cried. "So be it."

In keeping with their vow, when Mary was three years old, they had taken her to the Temple to dedicate her to the Lord's service.

They had arranged for her to study there, with other young virgins of well-to-do families, in the care of Anna's kinsman, the aged priest, Zechariah, of the division of Abijah, and his wife, Elizabeth. It was they, after the death of Joachim, who had helped Anna guide the child's upbringing.

Mary had grown radiant in spirit, rejoicing in worship, hymns and the sacred statutes, an exquisitely bright-cheeked and devout girl, with glad heart and a voice sweeter than the harps and flutes of the Levites on the Temple stairs.

Surely, Israel had never brought forth so goodly and elegant a bride. Anna moved distractedly about the room, her head swimming with recollections, hopes and fleeting anxieties, as she directed the final preparations.

Two other servants had joined Judith in decorating the house, bringing out extra ottomans and setting out trays of pickled olives, cheeses, fig cakes and other pastries for the throng of neighbors and relatives who would come in a day-long succession.

Anna's lips moved silently, as she bent to adjust a rug.

O Lord, grant that this man that thou hast chosen for her shall deal gently with her. Let him never raise his hand against her, nor speak to her harshly. She is born and nourished in thy loving kindness, O Lord. Give to this woodcutter, Joseph, a worthy heart and good intent.

Anna draped a fresh, sky-blue cover over the couch where Mary would sit with her groom, and brought the girl to the place of honor. There were three knocks at the door, signifying a visitor. Anna walked across the carpeted floor, dabbing at her eyes.

Teeth, Antifreeze Come Before Court

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Clayton F. Holland testified Friday that his estranged wife wouldn't let him take his false teeth, some shirts and four shoes for the right foot from their home.

Holland appeared in court without his teeth.

Mrs. Holland, suing for divorce on grounds of general indignities, testified she kept the items because he refused to give her antifreeze for the family car.

"I might say," remarked Judge Ben Terte, "that it is a petty thing to refuse his teeth. I don't think any court will consider it any degree of propriety to refuse to give a man his teeth."

Mrs. Holland was granted $145 a month support pending outcome of the divorce suit.

Let's Look At The Record

BOOKS FOR CHRISTMAS
Hill Expatriates On Books For Women
Suggests Specific Titles For Men

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
FOR CHRISTMAS presents, books can hardly be improved upon. You can get quality for less than ten dollars. For expensive gifts, buy sets, or just more titles.

Moreover, if you do not know the recipient well enough to gauge his taste, perhaps you should not be giving him a present of any kind.

For the lady, the problem is even more simple. If she does not have a book, anything will do so long as the binding is ornate, decorative to a table, and there is gilt along the edges. The more abstruse or recondite the title, the better. She is not going to read it, but will be flattered by the thought that she might. Moreover, she will tell many people about it, giving you much mileage on the gift.

This also means she will be talking a lot about you as a subsidiary subject. Her remarks may or may not be complimentary, but anyway, you will be getting the mileage.

IF THE LADY already has a book, one more will not hurt and the above principles continue to apply. But if she has two hundred or more books, the solution is more expensive and complex, but perhaps more pleasant.

To make a proper estimate of the situation, you should date her for a long delightful evening at a symphony concert or the opera, if a performance is reasonably near; followed by a long dinner of epicurean quality, where lights are low and music is soft.

At the end of the dinner, if you have not established a line on her cultural and literary tastes, by apparent inadvertence you merely permit her to see the total of the bill the waiter brings. She will be bright enough to know she has had it, and will be expecting no gift.

In short, the suggestions that follow are for men only.

STORIES FROM THE NEW YORKER: 1950-60 (Simon and Schuster, $7.50) is a good bet if he likes fiction, and is not already a New Yorker addict—which but few men in the provinces are. Under the law of averages, 10 of the 47 stories he will dislike. Conversely, there are 10 he will consider terrific.

SAMUEL E. MORISON'S "The U. S. Naval Operations in World War II" (Little, Brown, $6.50 a volume) is like a silver pattern for bridal gifts. I know a man who has given a friend one or two volumes a year for ten years. The volume is appropriately subtitled and stands alone as a coherent, accurate, often thrilling narrative. The drama of a volume necessarily depends upon the events within the dates covered of that particular tome.

The more climactic volumes are those on Pearl Harbor, the Invasion of North Africa, the Coral Sea and Midway, and most particularly the volume containing the Battle for Leyte Gulf. The 14th volume, "Victory in the Pacific," is tops and is just off the press. For a man who is a saltwater aficionado or who has been in the Navy, any part or all of the set is unexcelled as a present.

BIOGRAPHIES nearly always appeal to men. But the world's great and the near great hardly ever offer the most entertaining stories. It is the little men who did something distinctly different that frequently become the best subjects for stories that are new and refreshing.

Commander Tom Henderson Wells, USN (Retired), found such a character in "Commodore Moore and the Texas Navy" (University of Texas Press, $4.75). Moore's naval battles off Campeche, Mexico, are too little known. His rumput with Sam Houston, president of the powder burnt, buckskin, Lone Star Republic, was a classic. This is an accurate and scholarly book.

James D. Horan, editor, novelist and historian, in "C.S.S. Shenandoah" (Crown, $4.00), has done likewise for Lt. James I. Waddell, who skipped the only Confederate warship to sail around the world. Mr. Horan has dug up Waddell's own account of the voyage and, with an appropriate foreword, has made of it a most attractive volume.

FOR CIVIL WAR BUFFS and the impending Centennial, the Military Publishing Co., Harrisburg, Pa., moved in on the ground floor and still offers the most imposing list of attractive Blue and Gray titles. Among them Maj. Gen. E. J. Stackpole's battle trilogy of "Fredericksburg," "Chancellorsville," and "Gettysburg" are among the best on any list. General Stackpole has the knack of bringing the expository techniques of the General Staff College to the arm chair.

THE DETECTIONS OF DR. SAM JOHNSON, by Lillian de la Torre (Doubleday, $2.50) is a literary whimsy of the highest order, and a group of eight first class detective stories on their own right. The author has cast the analytically minded and literarily famous Dr. Samuel Johnson in the role of an Eighteenth Century Sherlock Holmes. Boswell, of course is in the role of bumbling Dr. Watson, but he bumbles in good Georgian dialect.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Will Judge Biglerville Xmas Decorations Tonight

The Biglerville Business Club will award $126 in prizes for the best outdoor Christmas decorations in Biglerville this evening.

John Roy Diehl and Kenneth Alwine, comprising the committee for the event, said prizes will be awarded, as in prior years for decorated doorways, general overall lighting effect and Christmas scenes.

Prizes for doorways will be $10 first, $8 second, $5 third and $3 fourth.

The awards for overall lighting will be $20 first, $15 second, $10 third and $5 fourth.

The Christmas scenes awards will be $20 first, $15 second, $10 third and $5 fourth.

The committee said the Christmas decorations will be judged from 8 to 10 o'clock this evening and all residents are asked to have their decorations illuminated during that period.

Diehl and Alwine urged all residents to compete in the event and expressed the hope that "Biglerville will be even more beautiful than ever before this Christmas time."

MUSMANNO TO ATTEND TRIAL

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Justice Michael A. Musmanno of the State Supreme Court will attend the Adolph Eichmann trial in Israel as a guest of the Israeli government.

Musmanno, who served as a judge at the Nuremberg war crimes trials after World War II, revealed his invitation Sunday for the trial which is set for next March.

Musmanno said, "It will be a long trial. It will be a matter of documentation and the recording of a program of genocide. I have firsthand knowledge of the opera-

Apple Picking Days Nearly 50 Years Ago

This 48-year-old photo, which is the property of R. R. Criswell, Arendtsville, recalls apple picking days of 1912 or 1913 in the orchard of Samuel Bream, near Biglerville, when apples were picked and barreled right in the orchard.

Some of the group above have been identified. Most of them have not. On the left standing back of the barrel is Frank Kimple and kneeling beside the barrel is a Mr. Stallsmith. Third man from the left sitting in the front row and wearing a cap is a Mr. Eirt. Near the center of the photo wearing a dark suit, black hat and mustache and goatee is the "boss" of the job, Samuel Bream. Standing in the back row at the left and holding a hatchet in his right hand is Carl W. Kane and beside him is his brother, George, a former county commissioner. Next is Reynolds Criswell, owner of the picture, and the three standing at the right have been identified as A. G. Comfort, Mike Crum and Harry Adams.

Capped

Miss Linda J. Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hoffman, Biglerville R. 1, was capped recently at the annual candlelight service of the Johns Hopkins Hospital School of Nursing, Baltimore, Md.

WOUND IS FATAL

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP) — A bullet wound suffered while hunting has proven fatal to John J. Tirpak, 14, of Patton.

Tirpak died Sunday at Mercy Hospital. He was hit in the stomach by a stray bullet while hunting in northern Cambria County.

INDIANA, Pa. (AP) — Edinboro has won the first Pre-Christian State College Invitational wrestling tournament, beating out Slippery Rock, Indiana and Clarion.

Edinboro picked up 82 points in Saturday's tourney at Indiana. Slippery Rock and Indiana placed second with 58 points each. Clarion was last with 39.

The men who pilot tourists over the fast rapids of the jungle rivers of Surinam are said to be the world's most expert canoeists.

Woman Hunter Is Found Dead Sunday

RIDGWAY, Pa. (AP) — A woman hunter from the Pittsburgh district has been found dead by two of her sons about 15 miles west of the Elk County community.

State police said Mrs. Amelia Marie Smith, 44, of Castle Shannon, was found Sunday with a bullet wound in her back.

Officers said Mrs. Smith became separated from a hunting party Saturday and was shot that day, apparently by a hunter's stray bullet.

Mrs. Smith, her sons, and her husband, John, 46, had arrived in Elk County Friday night for a weekend of hunting.

Use Of Radar, Stiff Jail Sentences, Chemical Tests Suggested By Safety Group

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Highway safety package featuring radar, stiffer jail penalties and mandatory chemical tests for drunken driving suspects was proposed by Gov. Lawrence's traffic safety Council Friday.

The council also recommended that the state adopt the strictest standards on intoxication proposed by the American Medical Association.

The council rejected proposals by the American Medical Association.

The council rejected proposals for a curfew for juvenile drivers and for a mandatory jail sentence for a person while driving while his license was suspended.

O. D. Shipley, traffic safety commissioner, said the proposed legislation on chemical tests not only would permit their use all throughout the state in determining whether a driver was intoxicated but their use would also be based on the assumption that a driver automatically gives his consent for police authorities to use the test when he accepts his license.

PERMIT CHEMICAL TESTS

Chemical tests are now permitted, by court consent, in a few counties. Other county courts have refused to accept them.

Under the proposal, he said, refusal to take the test would result in a suspension.

The council also adopted new blood test standards which have been proposed by the American Medical Association. The proposal would presume that a person is under the influence of alcohol when a blood test shows 10 per cent of alcohol in the blood. The present limit is 15.

Shipley said the recommendations would be submitted to Gov. Lawrence for his approval. The package included proposal to impose a $3,000 fine and 3 years jail for any person convicted of illegal possession of amphetamine sulphates (pep pills).

PROVISIONAL LICENSE

Establish a provisional license for persons 16 to 18 years if he continues to be the cause of an accident or if his parents withdraw consent.

Earmark all revenue from operators licenses for driver education, law enforcement and safety education.

Legalize radar for use by State Police.

Forbid children under 14 years of age from the driving of tractors or other farm vehicles after dark.

Increase the number of state police with maximum utilization for law enforcement.

Make juvenile drivers subject to the full penalties of the motor vehicle code except for jail sentences for nonpayment of fines.

VEHICLE LIGHTING

The council also approved the new interstate commerce regulations on commercial vehicle lighting. Shipley said a committee will study a proposal for similar regulations for intra-state vehicles and submit it later.

The commissioner also said committees are studying a revision of the state school bus law and a proposal to require trucks to use reduced gears when going down a grade.

He said all of the committees are expected to complete their work and report back by Jan. 5.

Farm Calendar

Harrow Orchards—Orchards with heavy sod or rank weed growth need a good harrowing before winter, informs Carl S. Bittner, extension pomologist. Harrowing now is good soil management and the tilling will also destroy orchard mice and their nesting places.

Foot Rot Danger—Wet weather in fall increases the danger of foot rot outbreaks in cattle and sheep, warns Samuel B. Guss, extension veterinarian at Penn State. The skin around the hooves is softened by moisture and easily damaged. Early treatment usually clears up the condition rapidly, but when the disease has had time to invade bones or joint cavities, treatment may be hopeless.

Don't Skimp On Fertilizer—Farmers who try to save money by buying less fertilizer can cut their income faster than they cut costs, according to James H. Eakin, extension agronomist. Most farmers will find that one of the best ways to meet the present price-cost squeeze is to increase the use of fertilizer on their farms. He suggests testing soils first to determine need of each field.

Supplement Pasture—Early fall is often the most critical season for beef cattle and sheep, says Thomas B. King, extension livestock specialist, because often their total nutrition is lacking more at this period. He urges farmers to make sure feed is always available and suggests supplementing depleted pastures with additional hay or silage.

Overhead Wires Deadly—Forgetting or overlooking the presence of overhead wires can mean death, reminds Joseph A. McCurdy, extension agricultural engineer. Never assume that insulated wires carrying current between buildings are safe to touch since insulation may become ineffective with age. It is best to avoid running wires across buildings or above driveways.

LEHIGH PICKS CAPTAIN

BETHLEHEM—Mike Semcheski has been elected captain of Lehigh University's varsity football team for 1961. It was announced today by head coach Bill Leckonby. Semcheski, a junior tackle from Chester, Pa., stands 6-2 and weighs 215 pounds. Leckonby has called him "one of the best tackles in the Middle Atlantic Conference with outstanding speed and mobility."

Community Chorus Sings Carols

More than a score of the members of the Community Carol Chorus of the local YWCA, sponsored by the Y-teens and directed by Mrs. Paul Reaser, are shown as they gathered in a doorway at the Adams County Home Saturday afternoon to sing Christmas carols. The same group on Friday evening had sung Christmas songs at the Gilliland Presbyterian Home and at the Warner Hospital. (Times photo)
